

March 2019 News

Hello everyone. The February newsletter was a bit late so it may seem a bit early for the March newsletter, but it is the beginning of March so here we are. There are three events to consider preregistering in – the Calgary workshop, the Lethbridge workshop and TAC this July.

Did you know that there are Facebook Pages for Scottish Country Dancing? Look up “The RSCDS Dance Scottish” page for news from around the world as well as close to home. A picture from the Cross and Thistle Dancers was featured in a post made on January 25 wishing us all a Happy Robbie Burns Day. As well, Kelly McDonnell posted a video of the Cumberland Reel from the Burns Night celebration at Confederation Park this year.

Calgary Branch also has a Facebook page. Look up “RSCDS Calgary”. There are a few pictures from Hogmanay posted. We could use a little more love on this page, so feel free to share pictures, videos and delightful moments from SCD in Calgary.

I am sure our friends up in Edmonton wouldn't mind you looking in on their “RSCDS Edmonton Caledonian Dance” page. They have added pictures from their 49th Annual Ball and Workshop event in February to their page.

Dancing Opportunity with Grace Scottish Country Dancing

Would you like to dance another night of the week? Grace SCD dances on Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 pm at Grace Presbyterian Church, 1009 15th Ave. SW. We are getting a little short on dancers and would love to have some of you join us. This is a lively class where Jim Adamson teaches us old favorites along with dances that are a little different and maybe not often danced. Jim adjusts his teaching each week to accommodate the level of dancers who have come out. As with any class, we do as many walk throughs as needed to get everyone heading in the right direction. We are a very social group where laughing is encouraged.

There is parking behind the church off of 9th Street S.W. and we can provide you with a parking pass. There is a side door into the church from the parking lot. You will need to ring a doorbell, announce you are with the dancers and the church security will buzz you in. The first night of dancing is free. The floor is a lovely wood floor and we have plenty of room, so please join us.

If you require any other information, please call Jim at (403) 271-1208.
